

Triple Trio Wins
Trophy in First
Student RevueEleven Organizations
Compete for Prize in Initial Presentation

With music sweet and hot, with dance and with laughter, the first of what is hoped to be an annual Student Stunt Revue went on the College stage last Friday night. Produced and performed entirely by the students themselves, this first attempt consisted of numbers presented by eleven campus organizations.

The Girls' Triple Trio with its "Revue of Songs" was declared by popular vote to be the winner in the 1940 Student Stunt Revue. Second place went to the Green-and-White Peppers for their "Rhythm School", and the Dance Band with its presentation Pitch Band Wagon captured third place in the mind of the audience.

The prize-winning Triple Trio under the direction of Miss Marian Kerr presented a revue of old popular songs taken from the era of the gay nineties. To the accompaniment of "A Bicycle Built for Two" Arlene Congdon as the young gay-biade of the town rode in on a tandem with Elizabeth Gardner as the true love on the back seat. "He's a Devil", "I Have My Steady", "Last Night on the Back Porch", and other remnants of a bygone romantic era completed the number. The members of the winning organization include Arlene Congdon, Elizabeth Gardner, Mary Louise Turner, Lois Langland, Dorothy Lassell, Iola Argo, Marcia Tyson, Margaret McLaughlin, and Laura M. Davis.

Second-prize money was taken by the Green-and-White Peppers under the sponsorship of Miss Day Weems. In their "Rhythm School", with Mae Eberhart as teacher, they presented a revue of more modern and nerve-racking melodies.

The Dance Band with its Pitch Band-Wagon took third prize. "Vaughn" Means acted as master of ceremonies, giving imitations of famous radio personalities, and Bob Dunham gave the crooner.

At the half-way mark of the revue, the O'Neillian Club presented snap-shot versions of several modern plays with cash prizes of $1 for those in the audience who correctly gave the titles of the plays represented among the charades. Harold Brueggeman in his advice to a white rat amused the audience and suggested "Brother Rat."

Other organizations who participated included the Barkats with a dramatic sketch "Hearts and Tarts", the Varsity Villagers with an impersonation of a Jewish woman of the New York East side given by Myrtle Henston, and the YMCA and YWCA with a character sketch "Mary's After-World." Esther Ward portrayed the teacher with the aching feet and never-ending calls upon her time.

The Association for Childhood Education presented a skit, "Little Black Sambo," relating the tribulations of a little savage in the African jungle. Residence Hall girls compressed all the events of the day into a sketch, "A Day at Residence Hall", and the Women's Athletic Organization presented an allegory on the athletic achievements of the "Beavers" "Here Comes the Bride." The Dance Club closed the evening's entertainment with a series of dance numbers entitled "Broadway Nights."

By Way of Commendation

With this last issue of the Northwest Missourian during the regular school year of 1939-40, the editorial adviser takes this opportunity of speaking in her own person. She wishes to express her gratitude to those members of the staff who have aided by to put out the last two issues of this paper: Robert Flowers, Harriet Harvey, Werner Herz, and Virgil Klonitz.

These students have worked unceasingly and uncomplainingly to put out a paper which heretofore has had a larger staff to share the duties. Their cooperation has been fine, and they deserve the honor of this public acknowledgement of their service.

Furthermore, she wishes to thank Robert Lewis for his assistance and Kenneth Crawford for his adding Northwest Missourian duties to his program. Both young men have given valuable help in the mailing department.

Students May Forget Worries About
Finals at College Jamboree TonightAll Reserve Will Be Thrown to Winds at
Happy Fun Festival

A free-for-all funfest will begin this afternoon at five thirty at the gymnasium and everyone has a special invitation to attend in his oldest clothes.

The fun will continue at the gymnasium until dark when it will be transferred to the old West Library for all-college dance.

The only admission charge to anything will be your determination to throw care and worry to the wind and spend an afternoon and evening in real old fashioned fun.

Tennis, volleyball, baseball, darts, croquet, ping-pong and other sports will offer their amusements to attendants so interested. A game of volleyball will probably be arranged between the students and the faculty. This may be the only chance the students will have this year to defeat the faculty.

Races, always a high spot in previous jamborees, will have a prominent place in the afternoon's entertainment. Sack races, three-legged races, potato races, newspaper races and anything else that can be thought of will be run in the course of the afternoon. Donny Paxon and Carl Donahue, defending champion three-legged racers have announced their intentions of defending their titles.

All winners in every phase of competition will be given tickets redeemable at the Kappa Omicron Phi refreshment stand and the keynote of all the afternoon's sports will be: "The more you compete the more you eat." It's an easy way to earn a good supper.

The refreshment stand will offer such picnic delicacies as hot dogs, potato chips, chewing gum, candy, cakes and all kinds of soft drinks, ice cream, and numerous other mouthwatering foods.

There will be no admission to the dance but guest cards must be obtained in the office of the director of personnel for women.

A lucky prize will be given to the person appearing in the oldest and most comfortable attire for an evening of fun such as this will be. In case of a tie, duplicate awards will be given to the contestants chosen by the judge.

Tentative arrangements have been made for a faculty husband-calling contest to be entered by faculty wives only. Also tentative is a hog-calling contest for the faculty men. Mr. Cooper is defending champion M. S. T. C. faculty hog-caller and will defend his title.

Fun will be the keynote and everyone on the campus is invited to attend the Free-for-all Funfest at the gymnasium tonight.

Alumni of Chicago
Respond to Call of
Their Alma Mater

Maryville alumni of the University of Chicago are showing their interest in their Alma Mater by the gifts they are making toward the Alumni Foundation Fund being raised in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the university. Not every one has contributed, nor has opportunity yet been given all to pledge a certain amount; but the response is encouraging to the committee in charge.

The local committee is made up of Miss Grace M. Shepherd, Miss Dora B. Smith, and Mr. William T. Garrett, with Miss Mattie M. Dykes as chairman. It was, and is, the hope of the committee that the final report will be one hundred per cent. "No gift is too small to count," says the central committee of the Alumni Foundation.

The University of Chicago has an enviable record. It was the first university in the Middle West and the third in the country to sponsor research as a primary activity; more than 60,000 research reports have been published by scholars of this single university.

Pioneer achievements by the University in teaching theory and practice also have received nationwide acceptance, including the "Chicago Plan" of undergraduate education put into effect by President Robert M. Hutchins in 1931, development of the only full-time staff, and the new Law School curriculum, with "non legal" content in addition to traditional law courses.

Receive Nobel Prizes
Four research projects at the University have been honored by the award of the Nobel Prize: physics discoveries on the Chicago quadrangles by Professors A. A. Michelson, Robert A. Millikan, and Arthur H. Compton, and surgical research at Chicago by Dr. Alexis Carrel.

The University of Chicago's leadership in American education is evidenced by the more than 126 college and university presidents in all parts of the country included among its alumni. More recipients of the Ph. D. degree at the University are professors in American colleges and universities than holders of the degree from any other institution.

The University has instructed more than 100,000 persons so successfully that one in every sixteen persons listed in "Who's Who" is a former Chicago student.

Graduates of Art

An exhibit of art work done by members of the graduating class is now open to the public on the fourth floor of the Administration Building, the east corridor and room 401.

The exhibit includes work in oil, including landscapes and still life, design, costume, interior decoration, metal work, including copper book-ends, book-plates, block-printing, showing curtains and towels, Batik, tile and dye work.

Dr. Crabb Will Address Graduates
At Commencement Exercises Tuesday

The largest class in the history of the College will look back upon four years of college life during the many ceremonies and celebrations that traditionally fill the last week before the end of the regular College year. Senior class members will be transformed into new graduates and alumni at the Commencement exercises when they will receive their diplomas, the reward of four years of Collg work.

Sees Officers for Next Year Installed

Senior members of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. said farewell and departed from the organizations last night at the annual tribute dinner at the Hotel Linville. New officers for the coming year were installed at the meeting which was held at 6:30.

The theme for the dinner was the S. S. YWCA sailing in a blue and white color scheme. A blue net was cast over a white table cloth to give the effect of a ship deck with the sails over head. The centerpiece was composed of blue sweet peas. Little blue fish served as nut cups and the programs were firmly tied with anchors.

Tickets were good for passage on the S. S. YWCA at the Hotel Linville Pier which sailed at six-thirty on Thursday, May 16, Lois Langland, president of the YWCA served as captain of the ship.

Invited honor guests were President and Mrs. Uel W. Lamkin, Dean and Mrs. J. W. Jones, and Miss Olive DeLuce.

The menu followed the deck style and was served in the typical sea atmosphere. The guests ate port hole, main sail, stowaways, sea weed, sail boat, frozen sea foam, driftwood, tables on the beach, life savers and steaming bilge.

Members of the various committees were: Paul Smith and Evelyn Dow in charge of general arrangements; program, Ena June Garrett; installation of officers and senior tribute, Ferris Baker and Mary Jane Johnson; menu, Ellis Reynolds; and Etta Marie Hage; and guests, Harold Johnson and Dorothy Bealls.

Mr. R. C. Adams, Chaplain at Park College, gave the main address. The tribute was delivered by Hope Wray and the response was given by Wilmer Allison.

DICK DEMPSEY
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

FRANK STRONG
BUSINESS MANAGER

Shown above are Dick Dempsey and Frank Strong, editor-in-chief and business manager respectively of the 1940 Tower, the twenty-fourth annual edition of the College yearbook. This year's Tower with its one hundred eighty pages is the largest in the history of the school.

In addition to the four features which the Tower presents is a four color process portrait of President Uel W. Lamkin.

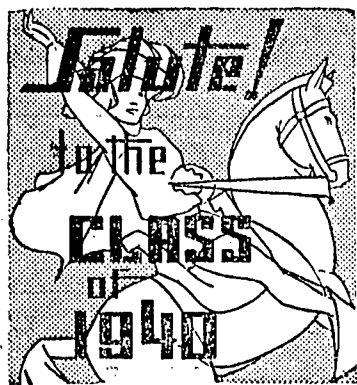

Another interesting feature is the two pages devoted to miscellaneous objects found in a girl's purse and in a boy's pocket. The Tower queens were shown both in the formal portraits and in informal shots depicting them in their daily life on the campus.

Assisting Dempsey and Strong on the Tower staff were Whitford Caton, Iola Argo, and Martine, Ocie Rhoades, Don Wilson, Keith Harris, June Kunkel, Robert Turner, Gertrude Yeater, Frances Pyle, Harold Silberstein, Ermin Bird, LeRoy Skalth and David White.

and

Since this will be the last issue of the Northwest Missourian for this regular school year I want to take this opportunity to say a fond farewell to all my friends whom I have loved and cherished and am proud and honored to have known.

I want to avoid sentimentality as far as possible, so I'll just say that I've sincerely and thoroughly enjoyed writing this column for you this year and I think that I have profited immensely by it.

If I have inadvertently trod on any toes, student or faculty variety, I must offer my apologies and say that it was not meant to be such. Any organization or individual who feels that he or it has been too severely panned through this column also has my apology, for I want to leave no grudges behind me.

Since this is a sort of farewell it will be devoted only to roses in order to leave a sweet and fragrant memory.

The first one, perhaps it should be a bouquet, goes to the editors of the Tower, College annual, and their henchmen who organized a beautiful yearbook for this school year of 1939-40. They have done a grand job of it and they should well be proud of their efforts. And so the last column of the season presents the first rose to our brother organization, the Tower Staff.

The second rose goes to another campus organization which has really come up the ladder of success during the last year. I speak of the Tivoli Ambassadors, College Dance Band, who have climbed rung after rung to their ladder of success during this year.

summer introducing college bands from all over the U. S.

We think our boys are a great bunch and absolutely worthy of a radio spot. How'd you like to tune in some Sunday night this summer and hear Don, Dick, the "crazy clarinetist," Earl Boucher, stick-swinging Lloyd Storey, or hear the voice of Bob Dunham, trombonist-doghouse player-vocalist Ted Young, and all the rest of the boys.

We could devote a lot of space here to the personnel of the band and the talent that lies there, but after all, a column's only so long.

But before we drop the subject of the band, an especially big rose goes to "Doc" Cook, local theatre manager, who has done as much or more than anyone else to put this group over. He's been a real friend to them and he deserves the finest of compliments for what he has done.

But this band is one campus organization that is rapidly outgrowing the campus, and while we hate to see the boys go, we know that they have worked for and earned everything that they can get. Our best wishes attend them and our pride, also, for they are all College students, too.

I only wish I had time and space here to skip over a resume of the activities of this last year, but you all have your own memories of pleasant things and those not so pleasant, so instead of forcing my particular memories upon you, I shall just say one last good-bye and best wishes to all of you, from myself and from the staff of the Northwest Missourian.

P.S.—Don't forget the jamboree this afternoon. You'll regret it if you do.

Student Opinion Survey

By Student Opinion Surveys Austin, Texas, May 17—A great majority of American college students, 83 per cent, is of the opinion that the government should provide medical care for those people who cannot afford it themselves.

That is what interviewers for the Student Opinion Surveys of America from one end of the country to the other discovered in this week's scientific poll of college students.

The survey points to a uniformity of opinion in every section of the country, but there is a slight difference between two classes of students, working and non-working. Those who earn all or part of their college expenses, and who therefore belong in a lower-income group, are more inclined to believe that medical insurance is a function of government. The following tabulations reveal this difference on the question asked:

Do you believe the government should be responsible for providing medical care for people who are unable to pay for it?

Yes: all, 83 per cent; working students, 25 per cent; non-working, 81 per cent.
No: all, 13 per cent; working students, 11 per cent; non-working, 15 per cent.
No opinion: all, 4 per cent; working students, 4 per cent; non-working, 4 per cent.

Winners will be announced by the noted conductor on June 5th and rehearsals for the much publicized good will tour by the orchestra of Central and South America will begin shortly thereafter. An inaugural concert will be given July 4th in Washington, D. C.

Bearcats Capture Second Place in MIAA Outdoor Track Meet

Taylor Sets New Mark in Mile and Half-Mile Event

Wayne Taylor, the Mound City sophomore distance star runner of the Maryville Teachers College, broke two records in the MIAA track carnival Saturday at Warrensburg. In addition to setting a new mark in the half mile which had been predicted, he also broke the mile record and was second high scorer of the meet which was won by Cape Girardeau with 81 points.

Maryville was second with 59 1/2 points. Other scoring was Kirksville 33, Springfield 31 2-3, Warrensburg 21 1-3 and Rolla 13 1/2.

After running the mile in 4:26.5 to break the former record of 4:27.3 set by Beal of Kirksville in 1931, Taylor came back to clip a tenth of a second off the half mile mark. He ran the 880 in 1:59.9. The former record of 2 minutes flat was set by Killion of Springfield in 1933.

College Students Strongly Oppose Participation in European Conflict

Survey Proves Little Belligerency Exists in Youth of Fighting Age

Student Opinion Surveys of America Austin, Texas, May 17—As Europe's war spreads to new fronts, observers are pointing to increasing possibilities of the U. S. being involved. In the opinion of American college students, many of whom are of fighting age, what are the conditions under which the U. S. should join the Allies against Germany?

Interviewers in scores of campuses have asked that question in a Student Opinion Surveys sampling. The results, exclusive to the Northwest Missourian and other member newspapers, show definitely that the American collegian has not changed his mind, is still much opposed to rushing into the conflict.

A good majority—two to one—may be included in two camps: Those who believe we should not join at all; those who would have us fight only in case the U. S. is actually threatened with an invasion.

The largest group of students, one-third of the entire enrollment, would keep our armies at home and fight only if an enemy attacked on this side of the Atlantic. The smallest group registered in the poll, 2 per cent, represents the students who believe the U. S. should join the Allies at once.

Following are the complete national tabulations: Under what conditions do you believe the U. S. should join the Allies against Germany?

1. Only if there is actual threat of the U. S. being invaded, 33 per cent.
2. U. S. should not join, 31 per cent.

3. Only if there is actual threat of any American nation being invaded, 15 per cent.
4. Only if England and France appear to be losing, 10 per cent.

5. U. S. should join now, 2 per cent.
6. Other conditions, 5 per cent.
7. No opinion, 4 per cent.

Those are the opinions of students after the German invasion of Scandinavia. Recent Allied failures in Norway may have changed attitudes to some extent, but the trend as the war has progressed has been more and more against the U. S. entering the conflict. Six months ago a Surveys poll pointed out that 38 per cent approved of sending troops against Germany if the Allies appeared to be losing. Now only 10 per cent approve.

Phi Delta Kappa Has Elected Mac Egdorf

News of high honors awarded to a graduate of the College reached Maryville this week when Roy Ferguson, assistant business manager of the College, received a letter from M. F. Election to the fraternity is considered one of the highest honors that a school man may receive.
